

Photo ID Training Exam Name: _____

True	False	Question
		1. A voter that is qualified as exempt from presenting a Photo ID is able to present only a valid voter registration certificate to be qualified to vote.
		2. A 69 year old voter that presents a driver's license that expired 4 ½ years ago is presenting an acceptable Form A ID.
		3. The address on the ID presented has to match the address in our system.
		4. The person working the check-in station should compare the name on the ID presented to the name on the List of Registered Voters (Laptop).
		5. An ID that says William Smith is an exact match to the List of Registered Voters (laptop) that says Bill Smith.
		6. A voter that does not possess a List A form of ID but presents a current Voter Registration Certificate also has to complete a Reasonable Impediment Declaration.
		7. A voter that does not possess a List A form of ID but has a current Voter Registration Certificate does not have to vote provisionally.
		8. A voter that possesses a List A form of ID but does not have it with them when arriving at the polls can 1) leave the poll to get the ID or 2) vote provisionally and cure up to 6 days after the election.
		9. A military dependent ID is an acceptable form of List A ID.
		10. A voter that does not possess a List A ID and does possess a List B ID but did not bring it to the poll may vote provisionally and cure it with a List B ID up to 6 days after the election.
		11. An ID badge from a voter's employer that has their photo but does not have their address can be used as a List B ID.
		12. A voter can be voted provisionally if you are unable to determine that the person presenting an ID to vote is the same person on the List of Registered Voters (laptop).
		13. A voter that is voting provisionally has to show an ID.
		14. A voter who is 71 years of age or older cannot use an expired form of ID.
		15. We should compare the photo on the ID to the voter presenting the ID.
		16. A voter can use a copy of their ID that is on their telephone.
		17. A Reasonable Impediment Declaration is not completed on the laptop.
		18. A limited term DL /ID card will state that it issued for a temporary or limited term.
		19. A limited term DL/ID always means that the person is a non-citizen.
		20. A poll worker does not have to follow certain steps when checking in a person that presents a limited term DL/ID.